Item 3 – Disciplinary History

Registered Investment Advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. Mr. Jenkins has information applicable to this Item. For additional information regarding these matters, please consult the SEC Web site at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov and search under his name.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Mr. Jenkins may recommend insurance products and, as an independent insurance agent, sell those recommended insurance products to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as the insurance licensed IARs earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. We require that all IARs disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. Also, we require IARs to disclose that clients may purchase recommended insurance products from other insurance agents not affiliated with us. The sale of these products accounts for approximately fifteen hours per month of his time.

Mr. Jenkins serves as VP, Investor Relations for Opes Capital LLC (“Opes”), a Pennsylvania limited liability company (the “Company”), has been formed to make investments in a diverse portfolio of real estate related investments, including, but not limited to, industrial, retail commercial, residential or mixed use real estate acquisitions, land development, commercial real estate lending, and property management, and other value add real estate projects. Opes Capital Manager LLC (“Manager”) serves as the Manager for Opes which is raising money from investors through a private placement of limited liability membership interests ("the Fund"). Manager and is responsible for making all Investments and operating decisions for Opes and the Fund. Advisory clients of Seaside Wealth may be solicited to invest in the Fund if it is deemed to be in the clients' best interest. Although no referral fees or fee sharing will be paid between Seaside Wealth and the Fund, Opes or any related entities, Mr. Jenkins as a Principal of the Manager will receive economic benefit from the fees earned by the Manager which creates a conflict of interest. The Firm mitigates this conflict by ensuring that the clients understand that Seaside Wealth and Opes are separate entities and that the Fund is offered through Opes. As a result, Mr. Jenkins will still receive compensation if the client invests in the Fund. Further, the Firm will provide offering disclosure documents to the Clients to ensure they understand the nature and the risk of the Fund. We require that all IARs disclose this conflict of interest when such a referral is made. Mr. Jenkin's activities with Opes and the Fund account for 10% of his time.

Mr. Jenkins is the owner of Seaside Tax Advisors, an accounting firm located in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania. Seaside Tax Advisors is not investment related. As Mr. Jenkins owns the business, he has a financial interest in its success, and this may create an incentive to refer advisory clients to Seaside Tax Advisors for accounting or tax services. When such referrals or recommendations are made, a conflict of interest exists. We require that Mr. Jenkins disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. We also require Mr. Jenkins to disclose that clients are under no obligation to use Seaside Tax Advisors and may obtain accounting and tax services from other providers not affiliated with us. This activity accounts for approximately ten hours per month of Mr. Jenkins's time, none of which occurs during securities trading hours, and approximately five percent of Mr. Jenkins's total yearly compensation.

Mr. Jenkins is also an active real estate investor and conducts these activities through several different entities which are listed below. No advisory clients are solicited to invest in any of the projects managed by the entities listed.

1) Real Estate Investment Property-Bradenton, FL. 100% owner, investment property, start date: 8/23/2021, 5 hours a month, 3 during trading hours: Investment related.
2) Jenkins Holdings LLC, Mechanicsburg, PA.100% owner, Holding company for investment properties. Start date: 2018, 10 hours a month, 3 during trading hours. Investment related.
3) Topsul Development, 50% owner, Holding company for investment properties. Start date: 11/05/2024, 10 hours a month, 5 during trading hours. Investment related.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Mr. Jenkins receives additional compensation from sales of insurance products. He may be eligible to receive incentive awards (including prizes such as trips or bonuses) for recommending certain types of insurance policies or other investment products that he recommends.

While Mr. Jenkins endeavors at all times to put the interest of Seaside wealth Advisors' clients first as part of our fiduciary duty, the possibility of receiving incentive awards creates a conflict of interest and may affect his judgment when making recommendations. We require that all IARs disclose this conflict of interest when such recommendations are made. Also, we require IARs to disclose that clients may purchase recommended insurance products from other insurance agents not affiliated with us.

Item 6 – Supervision

Allison Kramer is the Chief Compliance Officer and performs all supervisory duties for the Firm. She may be reached at 309-318-2745.
